The International College of Cranio Mandibular Orthopedics (ICCMO) has been the global voice of scientific advancement and education in occlusion, neuromuscular dentistry, sleep dentistry and TMJ/TMD diagnosis and treatment since 35 Years. The International conferences of ICCMO occurs once every 2 years hosted by our international sections in turns. As the International Secretary of ICCMO, I take tremendous pride to say that India is hosting the next conference at The Lalit Golf & Spa Resort, Goa India from 4th -7th May, 2023.

This congress will be the meeting ground of the leading minds in healthcare including dentists who are the not only stalwarts in their country but the most up-to date with new technologies. Other allied personnel will make their presence known with their deep interest in new ways in treating sleep apnea, poor posture, myofunctional therapy, speech therapy. With more than 1000 delegates with their spouses confirmed with all continents represented equally it is trusted that your product will not only make a splash in India but will be carried by the delegates back to their country along with fond memories of Goa. Do not miss being a part of this extravaganza in India as it holds its place in today's world by brimming with untapped potential in business with one of largest and as well as fastest growing economies and a healthcare industry that is growing leaps and bounds under the aegis of a young group of new-gen doctors.

We hope to bring the spirit of camaraderie and scientific exploration to the upcoming Congress, making it a benchmark and memorable event. This is in keeping with tradition, as the biennial ICCMO congresses have gained historical recognition for being the global voice of scientific advancement and education in neuromuscular dentistry.

This will be the first in-person International congress since the COVID-19 pandemic. All possible safety precautions are in place as we gear up for yet another enriching forum. The conference shall further include the rich heritage of academic excellence, culinary delights, industry updates, and numerous other first-time experiences. It is our privilege to invite you to the Congress and show you the best of Indian hospitality.

As an industry leader we request you to be a partner of our Congress and spread the gospel of neuromuscular dentistry.

Scientific Sessions

Our conference is divided into 6 sections like TMJ, Sleep Disorders, Posture, Radiology & Diagnosis, Importance of Occlusion and Tongue physiology. 38 International speakers from across the world will enrich our knowledge in these subjects with their experiences. Unlike the previous 2 days international conferences, we are conducting this on 3 days, for more education and more fun! And added to that an extra day just for numerous pre/post conference courses.

The theme, The Airway Truth, has been the hallmark of ICCMO India across all the conferences ICCMO India has hosted. Neuromuscular disorders of the entire body has a direct connection with the TMJ, dental occlusion and jaw positioning. ICCMO has been the absolute advocate and authority in spreading the word of Neuromuscular Dentistry.
